All points are cumulative, meaning maps hold the same value. The team with the most points at the end of the tournament wins.

Match Layout

In order to compete, you must:

- Play on the PC version of Beat Saber (No PSVR, no standalone Quest)
- Have a current, unbanned account on Scoresaber/BeatLeader

All players will have no fail by default use the default in-game scoring system.
For all maps, the team with the highest combined score determines the winner.

For a variety of reasons, certain mods must be disabled from the tournament:

- Old Notes
- Intro/Outro Skipper
- Note Slice Visualizer
- Song Chart Visualizer
- Streaming/chat integration mods (QoL purposes)
- Any mods/plugins that affect scoring ability or disable score submission

Utilizing any of the above-banned mods can result in your team losing a map point, the entire match or could result in the suspect player being banned from the rest of the tournament. This will be decided by the head coordinator/organizer depending on the situation.

All matches will be streamed via Twitch, and all players are expected to stream to Twitch during their match.

- All playing players will be expected to stream with a minimum quality of 720p@30fps. We also recommend having your stream at 60fps.
- Streams should avoid any obstructing overlays that cover the middle of the stream, as this affects the stream sync system. Small overlays on the borders/edges of the stream are acceptable.
- All streams of the game should be in first-person view. Third-person configs or use of avatars are not allowed.
- Your stream should not be shaky and should have a stable Camera2 config. If your stream is not up to standard, we will ask you to change your config. Optimal configs will be provided through our Discord.
- Your HSV config should be of a regular config and not include any non-conventional configs (i.e. Drakonno's Directional HSV).

During the tournament, all staff teams will do their best to make matches run smoothly and efficiently. Delays due to a variety of reasons may happen and other issues may arise, so all we ask is to remain respectful to all staff members. If you are found to be abusive to any of the staff, you may be removed from the tournament and all communication servers. At the end of the day, we are all volunteering our time to make this happen. We look forward to having a civil tournament for a good cause!
